That's just not true. There is a library in Park City with over 10,000 books, and several local coffee shops. I worked at a coffee shop in Park City, and the local people who were there are genuinely nice. You are almost guaranteed a great time if you go out to dinner and drinks in Park City. Last summer there was a big festival with music and crafts. It was like a mini Woodstock in the middle of the desert. I've never seen so many people out in the hot, dry desert. It was a riot. It's definitely one of the most beautiful places to visit in Utah
