The agreement provides a combination of services and technology to help Bison Healthcare partners assess and improve their performance in delivering high-value preventive care. The goal is to leverage data-driven insights that can be applied to specific provider or clinic settings to reduce cost, improve revenue and increase patient satisfaction. Per the agreement, Stroz Friedberg will provide advice, innovative technology and industry knowledge in order to improve patient care coordination, provider satisfaction and revenue. Stroz Friedberg will be working with Bison Healthcare's customer and health plan partners, including employers, health plans, self-insured carriers, purchasing agent and pharmacist organizations, and other related stakeholders, to identify areas of opportunity and leverage data to drive improvements in value-based programs. "Bison Healthcare is proud to partner with Stroz Friedberg to identify ways to increase patient access to high-value preventive care," said Sean Lawrence, chief commercial officer, Bison Healthcare. "Bison's mission is to make the delivery of high-value preventive care more efficient and effective for providers and employers, and we're pleased to be able to work with Stroz Friedberg to leverage advanced analytics to identify opportunities to improve care delivery.” “Stroz Friedberg is delighted to partner with Bison Healthcare to help improve its customers’ success with high-value preventive care,” said Brenda Eelkema, global head of Stroz Friedberg’s client services practice. “Bison’s focus on decreasing overall costs with high-value care is a challenging proposition that merits the use of real-time
