It was first held in 1992, and at the time was known as the Croatian First League (Hrvatski Prvodi). It is organized by the Croatian Football Federation. For the 2012-13 season, the first tier competition was called the 2012-13 Prva HNL season or Prva HNL. The top-tier competition has undergone a few changes in recent years: For the 2008-09 season, the Prva HNL was split into two groups. For the 2010-11 season, the second tier competition was known as the 2010-11 Croatian Second League or Hrvatski nogometni zavičaj. For the 2015-16 season, the second tier competition was known as the 2015-16 Croatian Second League or Hrvatski nogometni zavičaj and the top division became known as the Prva HNL. For the 2017-18 season, the second tier competition was renamed as the Croatian First Football League and the top division as the Prva HNL. In 2016 the Prva HNL returned to being a single-table league with 24 teams after a season of the two group format. The league champion qualifies to the group stage of the following season's UEFA Europa League. In case of a vacancy the runners-up of the Prva HNL is promoted to the UEFA Europa League third qualifying round. Teams First-tier teams (first seven-placed teams in
